

The Imperial Mint, Osaka
March 13th 1888.

D. M. Fox Esq.

Superintendent of the U. S. Mint.
Philadelphia.

Dear Sir,

I have my pleasure to inform you that I have recently returned to this country after having finished the visits to the principal European Mints, I give you my best thanks for the cordial reception you gave me during my visit to your institution, which I shall always remember with best feelings, as well as for the stock of information you placed in my hands, by which I shall be much guided in my discharge of duty. I shall be very happy to show a similar cordiality whenever any officer of the Mint of another country shall have occasion to make a visit to our own Mint in Osaka.

I remain

Yours very faithfully

THE MINT,

OSAKA.

March 13th 1888

Sir

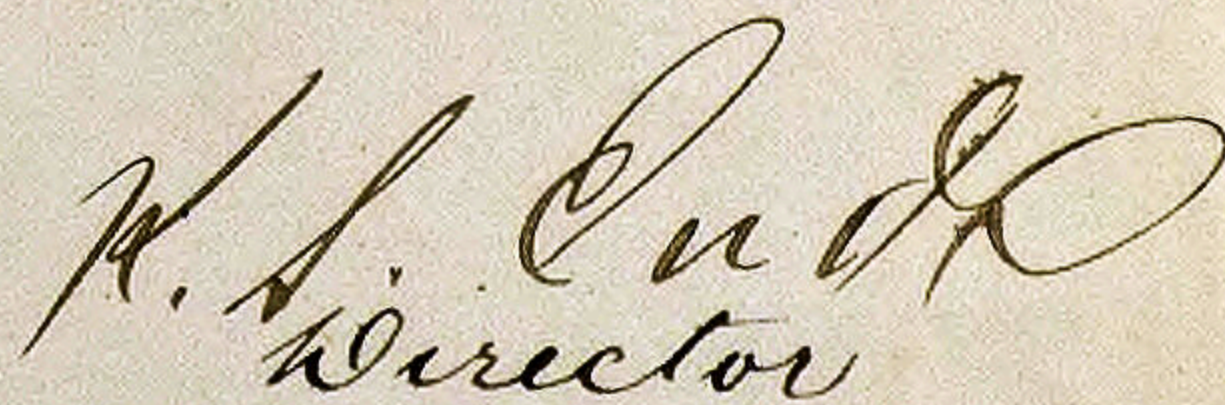

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the collection of medals which were presented by you to this Mint through T. Hasegawa, Vice Director of this Mint during his official visit to your Mint in 1886. The Vice Director has recently returned to this country and reports strongly of many civilities which were extended to him by you and the officers of your Mint, whom it is my duty to thank officially.

In view of the services which he received in your Mint a collection of certain medals, eleven in number, struck at this Mint and a set of photographs of the Imperial Mint are this day sent out to be presented to you and will be duly delivered to you by Messrs Mitsui & Co. London, and I shall be much obliged if you will kindly notify me of your acceptance of the above, when they reach you.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Director
